“ To the family and friends of Gail- No matter how prepared we think we are for a beloved's passing, we are still shocked and almost disbelieving that Gail is not at home waiting for us to visit, eat dinner with, or just eat some Good and Plenty until we burst. We will miss her so much. Love, Kate and Tony

“ I always loved Gail's smile, laugh and warmth which always made me feel so at ease in her presence. I remember thinking how it was a similar feeling to one I feel when I am in Dave's Gallery admiring the art. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ She always leaned to watch for us?Anxious if we were late,?In winter by the window,?In summer by the gate.
And though we mocked her tenderly?Who had such foolish care,?
The long way home would seem more safe,?Because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us,?She never could forget,?And so I think that where she is?She must be watching yet.
Waiting ‘til we come home to her?Anxious if we are late?Watching from Heaven’s window?Leaning from Heaven’s gate.?”

Thank you, Heather for the beautiful tribute to your mother. She was indeed, a loving, caring woman. Her friendship was unconditional. She was always there for others whenever they needed her. I will always keep her in my heart.

I've been enjoying my memories of the time I and Eric spent with your mom over the past several years. The most tangible being her laugh, she was as twisted as the two of us and always ready to share a giggle. We always looked forward to sharing time with her. Thank you for the photos in her younger years.

Gail always seemed upbeat so dignified. I will always remember her laughter and trust that her spirit will live on especially in David ' s paintings. Jill and Jim
