“ Gail was my first friend when i moved to Swarthmore in 1973. As an apartment dweller and wife of graduate student and mother of a toddler (Michael's age!) she introduced me to the Players Club, the now defunct Women's Club, and local craft events. I so much appreciated and still appreciate her warmth and recall you warmly on Rutgers Avenue. Blessings. Barbara Ellen Stratton (Becker in those years)

“ I had the wonderful experience as an adult to get to know my awesome Aunt, Gail Coffin Worth Regester. She was a quilter, birder and great friend as well as relative. I will miss her with all my heart. While we had many years together, we always want more. RIP dear Aunt Gail, you are truly loved and missed forever. Love you
