“ Gail was a great friend to all she met. Her laugh was contagious, and she put a smile on everyone she met. She will be greatly missed. I have many wonderful memories of her of our time together at the Capital Newspaper. She is now at peace with the Lord as she looks down of us who are still waiting to go to the wonderful place where she is.
My prayers go to her family. Love You Pat Coulter

“ Gail was a person that lived life to the fullest and gave unselfishly to her family, friends, volunteer boards and organizations and business associates. Always with a smile and determined drive, Gail accomplished more than many of us dream of in our lifetime. I will miss our talks, lunches, texts of encouragement and the friendship we shared.

I am grateful to have known Gail but take comfort that she is at peace in God's gentle care.
