“ Mr. Edsall was a very very kind person. I remember we had very little money back than and he really worked with us to find the appliance we could afford. He was always a gentleman to his customers. I was surprised to learn that he did not own the sears franchise because he worked like it was his own business. He always greated when I came into the store and always always treated us with kindness.

“ Uncle Gary, what a sweet soul, with such an incredible strength, a calm protective nature to those he loved, a strong faith, and a fun loving jokester with an infectious laugh. The last few years our FaceTimes and phone calls were highlights, listening to all your stories and laughing together was something I will cherish. Rest in peace, enjoy all the love and laughs with all the dear ones we miss that left us too soon before you. I can hear you all chuckling together in heaven. Love you, you will be missed. 💕💕 Jill
