“ Aunt Genevieve was a wonderful person and great aunt! I have so many fond memories of Sunday afternoons spent down on the farm with her, Grandmom and Uncle Ed. She was a fabulous cook and if you left her house hungry, it was your own fault. I remember helping her gather eggs and playing with the kitchen set that she had at her house. We always had so much fun there and our Daddy, Harvey, loved his big sister so much! She and Uncle Ed were such kind and giving people. We will miss her but know that she is in a far better place having a wonderful reunion with her parents, husband, daughter and her brothers and sister. We look forward to joining that great reunion someday. Thanks Aunt Genevieve for the memories!!!!

kathy your comments about your Aunt Genevieve and Uncle Ed were very descriptive of how they lived. Love Uncle Louis “ Mother and Daddy had 6 children. Three of them were called to be with God before the age of three. Genevieve Harvey and I lived to be adults and have families of our own. It was once said that if I had been #1 rather than #6 that the rest of our siblings would not have had a chance. Mother and Dad never complained about the loss of their three children, but I am sure it was very tough for them.

The three of us that survived were blessed in so many ways. When Harvey passed away several years ago, Gen and I were blessed to have the love of 4 children from the marriage of Harvey and Eleanor, a real joy and comfort in times of need. Harvey and I felt that one of our greatest blessings was to have a sister like Genevieve. She was so kind and caring to all. The expression I feel your pain, was not just casual words when describing sister Genevieve. She and her husband Ed were quick to arrive on the scene with Kind words and deeds. not only for family but to anyone they met along lifes journey. When our mother needed much attention and support in her declining yrs. Ed and Genevieve where there for her for many years going far beyond the norm to see that all of her needs were being met. Most importantly her need for love and support. This can never be forgotten. When Gen had needs in recent years, her family each in their own way was there for her. She said to me at one visit. You think because I am in here, that I am not included in the better times with my family. That is not the case they include me in all they do. Lorie Chet Casey and all involved

*themselves in her life very much. Lorie the daughter of George and Virginia Fluharty was the leader of the pack. She was there for her grandmother every day . She put her own life on hold to be there for grandmom. She did this never without her beautiful smile and pleasant ways. THE APPLE NEVER FALLS FAR FROM THE TREE.
Genevieve along with her husband Ed as set an example that I believe will live on for many years with their family and all of us who have been blessed with their love and friendship.*

*Should we mourn. I think that is fine, so long as we never forget the experience
she has in the presence of God to be able to have a total healing.*

With much Love and appreciation. Brother Louis Howeth

*Uncle Louis, thanks for putting this explanation so eloquently of two of the most giving people I've ever known besides my parents.

Aunt Genevieve was one of my favorite aunts. I would spend time with she and Uncle Ed during summers. A great time was had by all especially when Uncle Ed dished up the apple pie from a foot higher than the plate and it splattered all over the plate. Aunt Genevieve would give him a mock irritated look and say "Ed Kelley, look what you did". I will miss her alot.
