Tribute Wall

“ Mr. And Mrs were my sometime employers, art instructors, spiritual teachers, hosts in their home, and friends. I was in Easton for your father’s funeral, but missed your mother’s. I’m glad they are together now, and hope that they rest in eternal peace.

“ I met Georgann through the Colonial Dames on the Eastern Shore. Our friendship developed over the past 10 years. It was mainly through phone calls and letters. She seemed to love to write and I loved receiving her note cards with her artwork on the front. I'm an artist so really appreciated her drawings. She knew my mother had been involved in astronomy and would send articles about black holes or new discoveries that she thought I'd found interesting. She was a wonderful, caring and thoughtful woman and will be missed but often thought of.
