“ Dear Rene and family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss . Bud was a long time personal friend and professional colleague. I regret not maintaining closer contact after your moving to the Eastern Shore. It was nice having Bud joining the retirees group on Fridays for so many years. Having visited at your Centreville home, I was certain you would be spending years together in 'the land of pleasant living'. Your home, the community and the overall location seemed so well suited to your interests and lifestyle. Over the years, with your TLC, Bud persevered and was resilient when addressing various health issues.

Unfortunately his spirit and spiritually have now had to alter their course.

Please accept my sincere condolences and find ongoing comfort in your favorite memories of your many years together. Ken Hook
