“ George was both a gentleman and a "gentle man" who always had a pleasant smile for everyone. He always brought his wife and her Aunt Gladys to our monthly NARFE meetings where he was friendly, helpful and unassuming. We all liked George very much and are so sorry to hear of his passing. Our condolences to his wife, Gladys, and her aunt Gladys.

“ I remember the many cookoffs his mother and I had, and he would have to be the Judge. I reminded him I was his favorite first cousin, and he also put on his famle smile before he made his judgment. I forget how many contests I won. I visit from Philadelphia often

There are uncles to look up to,
Uncles who are wise,
Those who are good friends,
Those who advise,
Some are lovable,
Some who are fun,
Than there is you...
Uncle George was all this in one.
Our family tree on the Carter branch will miss uncle George with all of our hearts 💕💕*
