“ Suzzanne and family,
Craig and I were so saddened by your note at Christmas of George's death to cancer. We remember him so fondly for his love of family, his love of life, and his love of hunting. Two vivid memories we have are of him in your home: the first was his love and pride of the Eames Lounge chair you bought him so many years ago...he loved it and you for getting it for him. The other is, when he fed his future hunting dogs, as puppies, he would bang the pan lids over their heads loudly and frantically. When he saw my horrified expression, he knowingly explained that if the dogs associated loud noises with a good experience, like eating, they would never shy away from gun shot. I thought that was brilliant! He was a vivacious, generous, kind man. We are blessed to have known him. Thank you also for the pictures of your grandchildren...they are a wonderful tribute! May God bless and keep you and your family.

“ Suzzanne: I just learned today of George's death. I was trying to track him down to say hello, since I had not seen him since we moved in 2015 and in the process, heard of his passing. I have so many terrific memories of George, including his great dogs and also the time he helped me track down our Labrador puppy. You are in my prayers. George Powell

So sorry to read in the paper of George's death. I didn't realize he was so ill. He was so kind to Lanny when he was ill with his phone calls of encouragement. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

*Dear Suzanne and Family,
We are so sorry to learn of George's passing, especially, Sal. As we talked about George, we remembered the time when "Little Georgie" and our Chris were playing with the ice that the beer keg was in at a company picnic. I know we all laughed, which was the humor George saw in everything. We offer our sympathy and prayers during this most difficult time.*
