

George Ludington

January 11, 1945 - October 5, 2021

George Rodney Ludington, 76, of Easton, Maryland died on Tuesday, October 5, 2021. George was the oldest of five children. Both of his parents, George and Jean Ludington, are deceased, as is his only sister, Leslie. He is survived by his wife, Marie Rose Ludington, daughters, Julie O'Brien (Paul) and Jessica Ludington. George is also survived by his brothers Richard, David and Robert and grandchildren, Kayla, Logan and Brandon.

George was raised in Silver Spring, Maryland where he attended catholic school from kindergarten through high school. George went on to the University of Maryland, after which he joined the Army where he was part of the Military Police.

After the Army, George joined the Montgomery County Police Department, where he served with dedication for thirty-three years. During this time, George also appeared on the local Washington news station, WJLA Channel 7 with the "Crime Solvers Show" where he gave viewers information on local crime in the area and asking viewers for help in finding criminals.

During this time, George was also an adjunct Professor at the University of Maryland, teaching a course in criminal justice. After retiring from the police department, George worked at two different local TV stations in the Washington area. He followed this up by working for the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention.

George finally retired to the Eastern Shore, where he enjoyed his final years in Easton.

Tribute Wall

“ George Ludington

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ George Ludington

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ George Ludington

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ We will miss you Dad/Pop Pop! Hope you are dancing with Angels!

Julie O'Brien - November 05, 2021 at 06:54 AM