

George Woodruff Seger

November 17, 1931 - March 2, 2026

George Woodruff Seger of Easton, passed away on March 2, 2026, at his home near Easton. He was 94 years old.

Born in Trenton, NJ on November 17, 1931, he was the son of the late William Arnold Seger and Irma Schoening Seger. After graduating from Randolph-Macon Academy in 1948, he attended Washington and Lee University where he earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Commerce in 1952.

Upon graduation, George received commission as Ensign, U.S.N.R., served two years in Destroyers Escort, Atlantic Fleet and discharged as Lt. J.G. U.S.N.R. George then began a lifelong career in sales.

After his marriage in March of 1956 to Roberta, Bobbi, Seger, they made their home in Oxford.

In 1962, they moved to Easton where they were members of Christ Church. George was an active and involved member of the community, serving on several local boards, including The Memorial Hospital, The Country School, the United Fund, and as a longtime sailor and boater, involved member of local yacht clubs.

His career as an investment banker began in 1958 with Alex. Brown & Sons. He cherished his time with the firm, the friendships forged with his partners and valued relationships with his clients.

An avid athlete, George was competitive and a good sport. He met Bobbi at a Comet regatta; she won... Then, their courtship began and lived a long, fun, adventurous life, tennis, golf, and travel, spending time in their later years enjoying the Outer Banks and Colorado, along with their home on the Tred Avon River.

George was not only smart; he was wise, a lifelong learner who read his three newspapers a day to the end. He had a quick wit, broad, infectious smile, and a generous heart. George never met a stranger and was always genuinely interested in people and their respective lives.

Surviving are daughter, Suzanne Seger, son Michael Seger, three grandsons, Derek Seger, William Zach, and George Zach, and one great-grandson, William Zach. His siblings, William R. Seger and Richard S. Seger are deceased.

A Memorial Service will be held at Christ Church, 111 Harrison St. Easton, on Monday, March 23, 2026, at 11am. Private inurnment services will be at the Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Memorial donations in his memory may be made to The Talbot Hospice Foundation, Easton, MD.

“ He was a classic southern gentleman, he and Bobbi hosted me several times when they visited their house on the Outer Banks and i always looked forward to seeing them and their dog on the beach. I remember a particular story about a hurricane when they battened down their hatches at their home in Easton.
