

George Edward White

October 14, 1941 - September 27, 2016

George Edward White of Queenstown, MD, passed away on September 27, 2016. He was 74.

He was born on October 14, 1941, in Black Mountain, NC, the son of the late Leon and Josephine McDonald White. He grew up in North Carolina and then moved to the Washington, DC, area where he worked at the Anning-Johnson Company and C. J. Coakley Company. George then spent the last 25 years of his career with the Washington Brick and Terra Cotta Company (now The Brick Companies) until retiring in 2010 as a building engineer.

After enjoying many years visiting the Eastern Shore, George and his wife Betty retired to Queenstown in 2012. In addition to his love of the Eastern Shore, George was an avid horseracing fan and great handicapper.

George is survived by his loving wife, Betty, of 47 years; daughter, Pamela Kaushagen (Tony) of Lake Mary, FL; grandchildren, Elizabeth and Carter; siblings, Kaye White Blackburn (Carl) of New Madrid, MO, Danny White (Donna) of Nashville, TN, and Ronald White (Robbi) of Weaverville, NC. He was predeceased by his other siblings, Harold White; Jerry White; and Patricia White.

A memorial service will be held on Monday, October 10, 2016, at 12:00 noon at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD, where family and friends may visit prior to the service. The Celebration of Life will continue after the service at The River House at Queenstown Harbor, 310 Links Lane, Queenstown, MD.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in George's memory to The Brick Companies Foundation, 3168 Braverton Street, Suite 400, Edgewater, MD 21037.

“ Dear Mrs. White:

My deepest sympathy to you and the family. Mr. White was always such an upbeat person. Glad to have known him.

No words can say anything to make you feel better but take comfort in knowing that we are all a little better off in having know Mr. White.

Sincerely,

Ben Della Franca
