

Georgeanne May Mowery (Dells)

September 9, 1947 - September 14, 2025

Born on September 9, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland, the daughter of George Dells and Dorothy (Young) Dells. She grew up in Hampden on Baldwin Street, the same house she was born in. She went to school in Baltimore and found the love of her life, her true soulmate, Jim Mowery. They married on October 2, 1966 and resided in Baltimore until they moved to Kent Island in 1978. Georgeanne worked at an insurance company then, once she had children, she stayed at home until she started her career as a data processor at Quality Data. She was a hard worker, quick learner, but kept her job mainly because it gave her the flexibility to work with her family and her illness. She became ill early on, and kept working until she was unable. She would use her time to babysit the grandkids, take care of her pets, and travel with Jim. She loved the family trips and enjoyed going to the casino where it seemed she had a horseshoe up her butt—as Jim would say.

She is survived by her daughter Jennifer Hunt and her husband Sean, her middle son James J. Mowery, Jr. and his wife Michelle, their children Amber, Katelyn, and James III, her youngest son, Joseph B. Mowery, and his wife Betty, their children Sky, Lily, Joe Jr., Jade, and Alex; Her honorary son, John Merson, his wife Tammy, their children Tristan and Karli; Her close extended family, Tiffany, Martin, Alyssa (Andrew), Teagan (Val), Catherine, October, Marcus, and Josephine. She is also survived by her brother Walter Merson and his wife Carroll and her brother Henry Merson. She is loved by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends countrywide.
