“ Miss Marion-Please know that you are in my thoughts. I have very fond memories of Mr. George from my "growing up" years, like when he owned the Liquor Store in Kingstown and had his boat at the dock there. That was quite a few years ago, but the memories are still fresh in the brain like yesterday. My dad, Reds Shaffer, and Poppy-Ollie Herzberg and Jimmy Larrimore and Mr. George had alot of great times together also. Please know that he will be missed by ALOT of people. He was a very special person. Shirley McPeek###imported-begin##Shirley McPeek###imported-end##

“ We miss you at the store. It just doesn't have the George touch to the displays. I will miss your crazy emails. I had a bunch for you. I will miss all the information you gave me about your travels that helped me with mine. Thank you for being my friend George. I said many prayers for you and your family. I will truly miss you. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Renie Benjamin##imported-end##

“ Marian and family, you are in our thoughts and prayers. Will miss George's emails, all of those laughable cartoons. He was really a good natured guy and you will surely miss him. Remember all of our Christmas parties and picnics at the Bank. He was always in a good mood and kept you laughing.##imported-begin##Jim and Louise Bigelow##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure of knowing and working with George for years - in fact, he was one of my first customers in 1976 when I first entered the sales field. Later we worked together as peers at The Kronheim company.

Everyone who knew George appreciated him for his honorable nature, and his sense of fairness and generosity. Although we hadn't spoken much recently, I enjoyed exchanging e-mails with George for the last several years. He was a true gentleman - a talented artist, and the kind of soul we each should try to emulate more. Rest peacefully old friend -- We'll never forget you!
