

Gerard Andrew Blahut

August 19, 1936 - June 16, 2012

Gerard "Jerry" Andrew Blahut of Stevensville, MD, died peacefully at the home of his primary caregiver, his niece, Alexandra Blahut, on June 16, 2012. He was 75.

Born in Wilkesburg, PA, on August 19, 1936, Mr. Blahut was the elder son of the late, Andrew Vincent Blahut and Margaretha Mary Elizabeth Neumann Blahut. A lifelong bachelor, Mr. Blahut is survived by his nieces, Elizabeth Margaretha Brewster, Joan Marie Kilgore, Alexandra Louise Blahut, Katherine Anastasia Raybin, and Alice Sophia Gardner; his nephew, Andrew Vincent Blahut, II, and their families. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his only sibling, Frederick Vincent Blahut.

Mr. Blahut graduated from Carnegie-Mellon University in 1958 with a B.S. in Chemical Engineering. He returned to Carnegie-Mellon and earned an M.S. in Chemical Engineering in 1973. The majority of his career was spent at various industrial companies in Pennsylvania, where he applied his engineering expertise to develop new products, improve existing ones, and solve environmental problems.

Mr. Blahut keenly followed politics and several sports. In his youth, he was an amateur race car driver, and was a superb mechanic. After retirement, he lived in the Philadelphia area for several years until health issues compelled him to move closer to his relatives on the Eastern Shore.

Memorial gatherings will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, June 20, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newman Funeral home, P.A. in Chester. Funeral services will be at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 21, at St. Christopher's Catholic Church in Chester.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Little Sisters of the Poor, St. Martin's Baltimore, 601 Maiden Choice Lane, Catonsville, MD 21228. Contributions may also be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's, 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617.
