

Gladys Berglund

June 11, 2003

Gladys Lee Winters Berglund of Chestertown, MD passed away on June 11, 2003 at Heron Point in Chestertown, MD. She was 88.

Born on Staten Island, NY on May 6, 1915, she was the daughter of the late Philip Edward and Lena Ehlman Winters. After graduating high school she attended Cornell University and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Home Economics in 1936. She later received her Certificate of Education from Wagner College.

On September 24, 1937 she married John H. Berglund on Staten Island, NY. Over the course of the next several years she raised her three children. In 1952 she began teaching Junior High School with the New York City School System. She retired in 1972 and moved to Whispering Pines, North Carolina where she enjoyed golfing, traveling, and educating through volunteer efforts with the local school system. During this time she developed a strong interest in china porcelain painting and became quite proficient.

In 1993, she and her husband moved to Heron Point in Chestertown, MD. She has always been an active member of her church.

In addition to her husband of 65 years, she is survived by a son, John M. Berglund and his wife, Katy of Ashville, NC; two daughters, Lucinda J.

Simmons and her husband, Robert of Keswick, VA and Phyllis L. Jones of Salisbury, MD; 6 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Charity of your choice. Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Chestertown, MD.
