

Gladys Virginia Haddaway

August 23, 1925 - May 26, 2014

Gladys Virginia Haddaway of Glen Burnie, MD, died on Monday, May 26, 2014, at Fairfield Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Crownsville, MD. She was 88.

Born on August 23, 1925, in Galeton, PA, she was the daughter of the late James Albert and Grace Amanda Chaffee Fergus. She graduated from Trumansburg Central in Trumansburg, NY, Class of 1944. In 1946, she married Walter Howard Higgins, who predeceased her in 1951. She started working with Sampson Naval Training Center in Sampson, NY, and later worked with the United States Army as an Administrative Assistant from 1951, until she retired in 1985. She remarried to John "Jack" Haddaway in 1966. They moved from Glen Burnie to Kingstown in Chestertown, MD, in 1985. On December 13, 1995, her husband predeceased her and, in 2007, she moved back to Glen Burnie to be closer with her family.

Mrs. Haddaway was a member of the Women of the Moose Lodge. She enjoyed bowling, sewing, creating ceramics, reading, and her family – whether she would be babysitting or visiting.

She is survived by two sons, Howard Higgins and wife Ellie, of Glen Burnie, MD, and John Higgins and wife Rita of New Windsor, MD; a sister, Marjorie Babcock of Catskill, NY; a brother, James A. Fergus of Ithica, NY; three grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, May 29, 2014, at 11 a.m. in Still Pond Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your local hospice.
