“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. You can have the hope of being reunited with your dead loved ones. The Bible also promises: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. (Revelation 21:4) No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ Well I can't begin to list all my memories with Mom. They were all great she is one of the strongest women I know and boy could she teach you a lesson or two wether you wanted to learn it or not. God she will be missed more then I can say. My thoughts and prayers go out to this great and wonderful family. I know Pop will be glad to see her and have her by his side. Love between them was fearless for each other and there family. Love you all and thinking of you in this time of sorry and loss.
