“ My parents, Lucy and Morris Willey, were long time friends with Gladys and Sullivan. Even though I didn't see them much as I grew up, I have very fond memories of them both. They were loving parents and great friends to my parents. From Paula Buis

“ *Ms Sullivan
You will be missed by so many. I will never forget when I met you and we were walking down the halls of William Hill Manor and you were telling me about all your baking you liked to do. You are loved by many of us here. We Love you, Miss you so much and will never forget you!*

Love you jenn

“ Ms Gladys and Mr. Roy were our dear, sweet neighbors for many years. They were the most loving and caring people you would ever want to meet. We feel so blessed that God saw fit that we could have them in our lives. Ms. Gladys, I will never forget your apple muffins and your grape jelly, or your love of gardening and especially your spunk and feistiness! We love you dearly and we will never forget you. ~ Chris & Deb Langrell
