“Glen, In the past week I have tried to nail down just one favorite memory of you. I have to say that you have made that very difficult for me. Everything about you was unique to say the least. lol Your witty sense of humor, your kind heart, wonderful smile, and most of all your love for your family is what I will always keep near and dear to my heart. Our trip to Gettysburg was very memorable to say the least. Still can't figure out how a 3 hour trip took almost 5 hours following you. You wanted to go the scenic route. I will say that with 3 kid's and 2 dog's that long ride made for interesting conversations when all was said and done. lol But we survived and enjoyed our time with you in one of your favorite places. In looking through photo's for your memorial board I have been able to share your life with you as you saw it through the camera's lense. I know you were loved by all those at Killen's Pond as well as the other parks you had the pleasure of staying in. I have heard so many wonderful stories from those whom knew you for the past 6 years while you were staying at Killen's Pond. I could go on and on about how much your nephew Kalib loved you but just know that he will never forget how you called him "Catlip" instead of Kalib and that you called him your little pilgrim. Patience will always remember the remarks about her boy crushes and the one in particular is the boy she liked that you called IHOP. I will always remeber how you made a song out of everything which Kalib will do from time to time, so thank you for that. lol. The Coursey family has lost one of a kind. Jody and his brother and sister's will need all the love and support from everyone at this time to get through your loss but I know that the one thing we all know is that your not in pain or stressed and your up there with your loved one's watching over this family as we all grieve your passing. I know you wouldn't want us all to be sad because that's how you were. And in closing I know you were right with the lord and in knowing that your passing isn't a goodbye " it's until we meet again" .

“ I remember the first time I met Glen, I was working at Angler's and he and Frank Tyler came in after a morning of hunting I do believe, sat at my bar and all I saw were those steel blue eyes. Our early years were years of joy, he took my two boys under his wings like they were his own.

Glen loved the outdoors and I never thought, and I'm sure he never thought, he would get a city girl out in the woods to hunt. I remember one of our first hunting trips, the wind was blowing, we were at Mr. Miller's farm, Glen sends me up this tree, with a loaded gun, with instructions to stay quiet and wait for the deer to come to us. Little did I know that the wind would pick up and my tree swayed like a twig. I was so petrified that when light came and Glen saw I was plastered to the tree for dear life, he got down out of his tree came over to me and gently, patiently talked me out of that tree. Of course it took about an hour to do so.

It is true what they say that you never know how many lives you touch until you are gone. Glen had his way of doing things but from the phone calls, emails and social media, he touch a lot of people's lives that only now he is able to realize.

My heart and prayers go out to the Coursey siblings. I know you all have endured your fair share of hardship in the last 10 years or so and it breaks my heart that Glen left us the way he did.

Love and prayers,

Kirsten (Coursey) Murphy, LeRoy H. Pope III and James H. Pope.

“ It's hard to know what to say or how to say it. Words really have no meaning at a time like this. So many memories came flooding back.....memories that brought many tears, some that brought smiles. I can so remember the infamous 'tan van' that I used to wait to see everyday while sitting on my grandmother's porch swing coming down the road pulling that boat when I was young. I remember the school girl crush I had and the never ending teasing I endured about it by Miss Isabel and Mr. Ray. But most of all I will remember your silly grin, sense of humor, and gentle voice. Your family will always be near and dear to my heart and I'm so saddened by the pain I know they are feeling now. I'm sure little Miss Isabel is looking up in your eyes right now shaking her finger back and forth and giving you the devil, but then giving you a big ol' bear hug and laughing at all your antics. Rest easy, my friend. Keep an eye out on the family still here that loves you.....I'm sure they need to feel your presence right now as I know their pain is unbearable at the loss of their brother.

I will never forget you - you were my first love - my first husband - and you saved me from a place where no one should have been - I will forever be grateful to you for your kindness, love and everlasting legacy of being the person who stood up for me when no one else would and who took care of me when I couldn't take care of myself. We were both very young and things didn't turn out the way we planned - but I never forgot what you meant to me - I will love you always. May you rest in peace with your other family members and rejoice in being reunited with those who passed before you. I'm certain that you have now finally found peace and love that lasts forever.
