

Glenn Lee Taylor

July 23, 1937 - October 23, 2023

Glenn Lee Taylor, 86, of Easton, Maryland, took his last breath on this side of eternity on October 23, 2023. He was known for his servant's heart, putting a smile on your face, expressing joy in all circumstances, and for his passion to share the good news of Jesus Christ.

He was born in Ridgely, Maryland, July 23, 1937, to Willard H. Taylor and Luretha Fike Taylor. He graduated from Easton High School in 1956 and began working for the US Postal Service as a mail carrier, retiring after 35 years. Not one to sit still, Glenn enjoyed many part-time jobs, of which the longest and most fulfilling was with Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home. Always being about the Lord's work, he held a men's weekly bible study in his garage for the past 15 years. Glenn was a dedicated deacon, teacher, and servant of God.

He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Vivian Slacum Taylor, who was his constant partner in service to others. He is also survived by his three children, Tracy (Thomas), Marci (Paul), and Chet (Cindy); his grandchildren, Angella, Jennifer, Samantha, Ashlea, Heather, Amber, Brendan, and Connor; eight great grandchildren, his brother-in-law and three nieces.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Howard, and his beloved daughter, Dianna.

Glenn will always be remembered for his never-ending joy, great hugs, a desire to make everyone laugh, and deep compassion for everyone he encountered. He was a godly example of a loving spouse, a great father, a wise mentor and a caring friend. Glenn lived out his life verse 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, "Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." He will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation to Samaritan's Purse, PO Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607 or Tunnel to Towers Foundation, 2361 Hylan Blvd, Staten Island, NY 10306.

A visitation will be held from 10am – 12pm at Anchor Church, 620 Goldsborough St, Easton, MD 21601 on Saturday, November 4, 2023. A service will follow the visitation. Burial will be private.

“ Mr. Glenn was a great man and will be dearly missed. I would joke with him whenever I saw him at the funerals and he always helped me in return depending on the situation with a hug, a You got this gal, and a smile. I termed him one of my many FHN boyfriends cause some weeks I saw them more than I did my own family. He made an impact on all around him. May he rest in peace and keep watch over the rest of us. Prayers to his family, co-workers and all who knew him.

“ Glenn was so special! We are the same age & we were in school together. Whenever I saw him I looked forward to that wonderful smile & a big bear hug! I saw him just recently at Joyce Balderson's celebration of life here in Oxford. Glenn was the first one to greet several of us classmates as we entered the church -- with that big smile & familiar hug. We will miss you dear friend. My love & prayers are with you Vivian. ❤️🙏❤️🙏

“ Glenn was kind hearted, hard working, caring, and a true Gentleman. He was an integral part of the team at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home. Glenn was quick to share a good story and someone who I could always count on for solid advice. He will be truly missed by all who experienced his kind words, warm embrace, and friendly smile. Rest in Peace my Friend.

Glenn was an amazing man of God. He was a mentor to so many people and always approached strangers with a big smile, kind word and love in his heart. He was a great Bible teacher and leader among men. I do not know how my husband and I would have gotten through so many trying times without his (and Vivien's) strong and constant support. I will always be grateful to have known him. Cindy Wright
