

Gloria Weaver

May 5, 1938 - August 18, 2015

Gloria Diane Weaver, 77, passed away Tuesday morning, August 18, 2015, at the University of Maryland Shore Medical Center in Easton.

Born in Baltimore, Gloria graduated from Western High School in 1957. She worked for the B&O Railroad and several state agencies, including The Department of Personnel, and The Department of Public Improvements, where she met her husband, Russell D. Weaver.

Gloria enjoyed trips to West Virginia parks and ocean beaches. She collected both oyster plates and Heisy Glass.

Gloria is survived by her devoted husband; loving son, Mark S. Weaver of Auburn Hills, MI; as well a daughter-in-law, Mika Nicole, also of Auburn Hills, MI.

There will be a private family service Friday morning followed by burial at the Eastern Shore Veterans Cemetery near Hurlock, MD.

“ My Gloria has passed ... She held our family together all the while suffering with brittle diabetes. She never lost her sense of humor, was quick of wit and remained compassionate. She was a loving wife and devoted mother to our Son, Mark. I pray she has been received by Our Lord yet, remains in our hearts, always.
Your loving Husband, Russell
