“ Gordon Bush was a true Gentleman's Gentleman. He exhibited quiet strength. I remember him as a man of few words, but when he spoke, it was always with substance. Privileged to be his friend and also a friend of his lovely wife, Diana.

Gordon was my Uncle and I have great respect for his encouragement in my life. He gave me motivation to get a college degree and have a career. I can remember the good times when he was in high school and I was in the seventh grade. He did have a band and played the trumpet. He was a very good man and may God bless his memory.
