

Grace Elaine Bester

July 2, 1937 - October 8, 2016

Grace Elaine Trolenberg Bester, 79, of Easton, MD, passed away on October 8, 2016.

A short worship service will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, October 15, at Grace Lutheran Church in Easton, with Pastor Karen E. Larson officiating. A memorial gathering of family and friends will be held in the near future.

Grace, always creative, independent, tenacious, was born in Chicago, IL, July 2, 1937, and graduated from Concordia College, River Forest, IL. In addition, she completed a graduate program in English at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She worked in education most of her adult life, in MS, OH, CA, MO, CT, first teaching elementary and secondary school, as a school librarian in Simsbury, CT, and retired from the University of Hartford as Associate Director of Admissions and Financial Aid.

She is survived by her husband of 49 years, Craig. She is also survived by their son, Matthew; his wife, Jennifer; their daughters, Maia and Sophie; her daughter, Elizabeth; her husband Robert Goodill; and their son, Peter; by her sister Christel; by Craig's sister and brother; and by several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Her talent and love, knitted articles, sewing projects, hand-crafted ornaments, and water color paintings, live on in homes here and abroad.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Grace Lutheran Church, 111 Brookletts Ave., Easton, and to the Pulmonary Hypertension Association.

“ To Grace's family, I am sorry to hear about her passing, especially so late. Grace hired me at UHa & I will never forget first meeting her. I came in to interview & she just loved my classic white satin-lined black cashmere coat. It certainly kicked the interview off in a positive direction! I've thought about Grace often since she retired, and we moved back to PA. I value my time spent learning from her. She was direct & firm, yet forgiving & hilarious! My life is certainly better having known her. My condolences.
