

Grace Louise Covington

September 19, 1919 - July 2, 2018

On Monday morning, July 2, 2018, Grace Louise Covington left this life for her last adventure. She was 98.

Born in Baltimore, MD, on September 19, 1919, she grew up in the city, first on Laretta Avenue in a rowhouse and then on to Westgate Rd. Here at age 10, she began her lifelong love of Coca-Cola. She attended P.S. 86 elementary and then Western High School. She and her parents moved to Linthicum in the 1950's.

Grace went on to work for the Barton Gillett Paper Company beginning on the bottom rung of the ladder. Over the next 30 plus years, she worked her way up, retiring as Vice-President. She enjoyed golfing, bowling, ceramics, and socializing with her family and many friends. In the 1980's, she moved to Easton, where she made many new friends and continued to enjoy life.

She is survived by her niece, Judy Foster (Tom); her nephew, Stanley Howeth (Kathy); her great-niece, Nan Lambeth (John) and Carol O'Donnell (John), and numerous other great-nieces, great-nephews and cousins.

She was predeceased by her parents, M. Rosebud Haddaway and T. Fletcher Covington; her sister, C. Virginia Covington Howeth; and her brother, W. McNeil (Mickey) Covington.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 21, 2018 at 11 AM at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton. Burial will be private.

At last sighting, she was drinking a Coke!
