

Greg Lee Johnson

November 29, 1999

Greg Lee Johnson of Stevensville, MD, died suddenly from complications due to cancer on November 29, 1999, at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, MD. He was 23.

Born April 1, 1976, in Easton, MD, he was the son of Frances Faye Satchell Johnson and the late Vernon Lynn Johnson. He was a Queen Anne's County High School 1994 graduate.

Greg was a member of the Kent Island Youth Soccer League and the Queen Anne's County High School varsity soccer team, where he was co-captain. He attended Chesapeake Community College and played soccer there as well. Later he transferred to Salisbury State University where he studied geography. Greg was a member of the Geography Club, worked for the Geography Department, and, as a graduating senior, planned to study climatology. He enjoyed surfing and body boarding and being near the sea.

He is survived by his mother, Faye Johnson of Stevensville, MD; one brother, Duane Lee Johnson of Silver Spring, MD; a sister, Jodi Lee Johnson Fornicola of Salisbury, MD; paternal grandmother, Virginia Johnson of Centreville, MD; maternal grandparents, Francis and Rowena Satchell of Easton, MD; and one nephew, Ethan Michael Fornicola.

Services will be held on Thursday, December 2, 1999, at 11 a.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chester. Friends and family may call on Wednesday, December 1, 1999, between the hours of 7 to 9 p.m. at the funeral home.

Memorial donations may be made to the Greg L. Johnson Memorial Fund / S.S.U. Foundation, Inc., 1120 Camden Ave., Salisbury, MD 21804.
