“ There are so many memories that have run through my mind of childhood fun with "the crew". Over 30 years of laughter, tears, and life's opportunities were shared between us. From karate in my basement and backyard to eating popcorn on the back of your truck so I would stay out of trouble at McD's we were joined at the hip. The great times at King's Dominion, and the challenges we gave both sets of our folk's will live forever.

To Mom and Dad Hamilton,
Thank you for bringing such a beautiful soul to this world. Your home was one of love and protection for many of us when we were growing up. We gave you many challenges through the growing years. Greg loved you both very much and was the best man I have ever met because of the love you gave him over the years.

To Christopher:
I have no words that could possibly comfort you. You have always been your father's heart. He shared many stories of you with me. He loved you beyond words from the day you were born.

To Greg,
My beloved brother, best friend, and protector -- I love you and will miss you with every breath I take. Until we meet again, the memories will live in my heart.##imported-begin##Vanessa Rafferty-Mastros##imported-end##

He was always there to guide me and advise me on multiple areas of life and he helped me through a fair amount of personal drama, he always had a shoulder for me to cry on and was always there with a hug.
