“ When we were kids Guy (aka Guy-Lo) lived next door to my Grandparents down Fairbank. We'd row my grandfathers skiff across the cove and go crabbing. Neither of us could swim a lick. I'll always cherish the memories of the times we spent together.

He was a waterman through and through. He enjoyed being on the water and taught me a lot about fishing and crabbing. Thank you for sharing his memories

“What a "guy", Guy was to the many folks who became his friend. In the front door of State Highway Administration, Denton Shop this fast talking smiling face person who let you know I am going to get my years of service, my benefits, retire and move to the Philippines with Agnes. They made many trips to her homeland during his years at SHA, and his dream came true. And, the stories he would tell us after each trip, some questioned why do you want to live so far away. I understand Guy's illness brought them back to Maryland. He was an unique person and a joy to work with during our SHA years.

My thoughts and prayers are with Agnes and his family, We know if God has a special fishing hole in heaven Guy is standing on the bank. Nancie Hall

Nancie, thank you for your kind words. He did enjoyed every bit of his time in the Philippines. He made a lot of friends and enjoyed sitting down with them and listening to their stories over bottles of gin although he don't drink. He would come home smiling. He enjoyed sitting on the porch and watching people pass by and would give coins to kids that passed by. He will be greatly missed by my family and the people there that have known him

Agnes I know you had a special "fellar" and you will always cherish the years you had together. I will never understand why God takes these special, caring, loving this good earth, bringing joy to all they meet, and he would give you the shirt off his back, he was that person. Guess God needed Guy in heaven to help those who lost their joy. Wherever you decide to live, may you live in peace and cherish the memories with Guy and those you met in Caroline County MD. Sending Love your way...Nancie Hall
