

Hannah Mae "Nan" Williams

February 6, 1947 - August 25, 2010

Hannah Mae "Nan" Jordan Williams of Centreville, MD died on Wednesday, August 25, 2010 at Chester River Hospital, Chestertown, MD.

Born February 6, 1947 in Glen Burnie, MD, she was the daughter of the late, Raymond and Dorothy Kanus Jordan. In 1972 she moved from Cape St. Clair to Centreville, MD where she raised her family.

Nan enjoyed rural living and the simple pleasure of cooking and baking, gardening, sewing, riding horses, camping, attending ballgames and raising Pomeranians, especially her beloved dog, Amy. She was a generous and devoted wife, mother and grandmother and she loved cheering on her children and grandchildren at all of their athletic games and watching them open birthday and Christmas presents.

Mrs. Williams is survived by three sons, Raymond John Williams, III and his wife, Debbie of Ingleside, Timothy Allen Williams and his wife, Mindy of Denton and Christopher Lee Williams and his wife, Dana, also of Denton; nine grandchildren, Jake and Megan of Ingleside, Ashley and Kellie, Lauren, Luke, Seth, Danielle and Jack, all of Denton; a sister, Dorothy Adams of Centreville, MD. She was pre-deceased by her husband, Raymond John Williams, Jr. who died December 2008 and a brother, Raymond Jordan.

A Funeral Service will be held at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Centreville, MD on Monday, August 30, 2010 at 11:00 where friends and family may call one hour prior to the service.

Burial will be at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Easton, MD.

“ Dear Williams Family,
I send you my deepest sympathy and condolences.
May the great memories that you have of your mom and all of the great times that you had together fill your heart with joy with the peace that comes knowing she no longer suffers and that God has his mighty hand around her now.##imported-begin##Jerry Polk##imported-end##
