“ *I would like the family to know that harold was a friend that used to come to my moms house. we would talk about arrowheads and places to go to look for them. he always loved to talk and maybe throw back a few beers. I hope that you find solace in knowing he was a good person with a kind heart and will be missed by myself and all of my friends who got to know him. My prayers are with you and your family. “ Cindy and family. Harold battled Long and hard. He was a brave warrior who truly loved his family. He was a good man with a giving heart. We became very good friends over the years, and we shared good conversation in many things. Although he will be sorely missed by us all who truly loved him, we must rejoice in the fact that he is now totally healed and in his wonderful new home with our savior, Jesus Christ. Harold, my good friend, I know you are looking down on Cindy, family and your friends, and saying it was all worth it, and we will all be back together some day's. Harold, you won the fight. This is just the beginning. We will see you soon, good buddy.

“ To the family of Harold Decristofaro, I want to express my deepest and heartfelt condolences. I am truly sorry for the loss you are feeling. Our God Jehovah never intended for your family to experience the loss that death can bring. And for that I will keep your entire family in my prayers. During this difficult time, know that Jehovah God wants you to turn to him for comfort. (2 Corinthiane 1: 3, 4) I hope that turning to God for comfort and cherishing the wonderful memories of Harold, will console you in the days to come.
