“ Wow...i am still in shock right now! this was a hard pill to swallow this morning in finding out of Mr. Harold's passing. I have known him since my days @ wamart (like 7 yrs ago). An in those 7 yrs I left walmart went to the diagnostc center then from there went to working @ anne arundel and it seemed like every job funny enough Mr. Harold would find me. In those years of knowing you and Mrs. Grace I started to view the both of you like my grandparents. whenever I see ya'll we engage in conversation and if I don't see you first Mrs. Grace or Mr. Harold would make their presence known. Mr. Harold would always ask how my kids were doing and if I was being hav. Mrs. Grace I have you and your family in my prayers. Be blessed!###imported-begin###tynika bailey (yolanda)###imported-end###
