

Harrison W. Vickers

March 20, 2008

Harrison Wilson (Nirk) Vickers III, age 92, of Chestertown, Maryland, died on Thursday, March 20, 2008 at Chestertown Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. He was the son of the late Harrison W., Jr. and Rebecca Eliason Vickers, and the husband of the late Thelma W. Vickers who predeceased him in 1987. One niece, Jean Anthony Knox and a close friend, John T. (Jack) Diller survive him. A sister, Dorothy Vickers Anthony, predeceased him. He was the great, great, great nephew of U.S. Senator George Vickers of Kent County. Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, he graduated from Stony Brook School in Stony Brook, New York in 1935. He attended the University of Virginia where he was a member of the Jeffersonian Society. Prior to World War II, he worked for the DuPont Company's nylon plant in Seaford, Delaware. Following this, he joined the US Army Air Corps as a medic where he served in the China, Burma, India (CBI) Theater with the 2nd Troop Carrier Command. After the war he returned briefly to the DuPont Company. He joined his partner, James T. Anthony III, in Anthony Flowers in Chestertown in 1949. He was with Anthony's Flowers until his retirement. He was a former director of Chester Cemetery Company, supervisor of the Chestertown Election board for several years in the 1990s, a member of the "CSI" organization, an active member of the Frank M. Jarmen Post #36, and a member of Alcoholics Anonymous. He enjoyed going to thoroughbred races and was a big fan of the Yankees and the Colts. A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday, March 24, at Fellows, Helpfenbein, Newman Funeral Home in Chestertown, MD, where friends may call one hour prior to the service. Interment will be in Chester Cemetery. Rev. Kenneth Hickman will officiate. Arrangements made by Marvin V. Williams, Jr., Funeral Director, Chestertown, MD.

Tribute Wall

“ Harrison W. Vickers

---

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Harrison W. Vickers

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Harrison W. Vickers

---

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM