

Harry Harrison Cook, Jr.

May 1, 1958 - January 23, 2012

Harry Harrison Cook, Jr., of Queenstown, MD, died at his home on Monday, January 23, 2012. He was 53.

Born May 1, 1958 in Baltimore, MD, he was the son of Mary Catherine Wiechman of Glen Burnie and the late, Harry Harrison Cook, Sr. He graduated from Glen Burnie High School, Class of 1975. He met and married Gail Ann Durkin and shortly thereafter moved to Stevensville, MD, and for the last 10 years living in Queenstown. He worked for the Sheet Metal Workers Local 100 since he graduated.

Harry loved golf, fishing, and projects around the home. His greatest joy was his family.

In addition to his mother, and his wife, he is survived by his daughter, Rebecca Marie Cook of Queenstown, MD; a brother, Criss Cook and his wife, Jennifer, of Grasonville, MD; and a sister, Tammy Cook of Florida.

Memorial service will be at Safe Harbor Presbyterian on Friday, February 10, 2012, at 11 a.m.

Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc., 255 Comet Drive, Centreville, MD 21617.

“ Gail, I just want you to know how so very sorry I am to hear that Harry passed away. He was a very nice man and great neighbor. Rocky and I will miss seeing him working out in the yard or relaxing on the front porch...:) We will especially miss hearing him cheer for the Ravens. Rock and I would be working out in the yard and hear Harry yell "YEAH, ALRIGHT, GO RAVENS!" and we would look at each other and say, the Ravens just got a touchdown...:) or with a smile, one of us would say, "there is Harry, he must be watch the game." Gail, If you ever need anything, please come over. I will absolutly be there for you. You can count on that...:) Your neighbor Sandy Jordan
