

Hattie Parrott Leonard

July 29, 1914 - August 27, 2013

Hattie Parrott Leonard of Trappe, MD, died on August 27, 2013, at Chesapeake Caregivers. She was 99.

Born July 29, 1914, she was the daughter of the late Henry P. and Mary Diefenderfer Parrott. After graduating from Trappe High School in 1933, she married James C.R. Leonard, and they made their home in the Island Creek area. She worked in the meat department of Acme Markets in both Easton and St. Michaels and was also devoted to the care of area children for many years. Mr. Leonard died in 1984.

A lifelong resident of Talbot County, she was a member of the Trappe United Methodist Church, the United Methodist Women of Trappe, and the Trappe Homemakers.

Mrs. Leonard is survived by one son, James R. Leonard of Trappe, MD; three grandchildren, David C. Leonard, Nancy L. Ganate and Linda Zimmerman; and one great-grandson, Jonah Zimmerman.

She was predeceased by a brother, Lloyd Parrott; her sisters, Edith Smith, Mary Louise Dobson, and Ruth Evans; and one grandson, John R. Leonard.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, September 5, 2013, at 11 a.m. at Trappe United Methodist Church, in Trappe, MD.

Burial will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Trappe Volunteer Fire Department, P.O. Box 86, Trappe, MD 21673 or the Trappe United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 362, Trappe, MD 21673.

“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. The Bible teaches that God is eager to raise the dead. The faithful man Job asked: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?” Job was speaking about waiting in the grave until the time came for God to remember him. He said to Jehovah: “You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”— Job 14:13-15.” Please visit www.jw.org
