

Helen Knight Bryden

April 24, 1941 - March 20, 2016

Helen Knight Bryden of Chestertown, MD, died on Sunday, March 20, 2016, at the University of Maryland Shore Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Chestertown. She was 74.

Born on April 24, 1941, in Chestertown, MD, she was the daughter of the late William O'Brien and Clara Dwyer Knight. She graduated from Chestertown High School on June 4, 1959, and on June 8, 1959, she married Bruce Bryden. They lived in Chestertown where she raised her family.

Mrs. Bryden worked as a teacher's aide with Kent County High School, and as a substitute teacher. She also worked with several area doctors' offices before taking a position as ER receptionist with Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. She worked in that capacity until 2002, when she retired. Mrs. Bryden was a member of the Chestertown Baptist Church. She enjoyed cross stitching, reading, and cooking. The highlight of her life was entertaining family and friends at her home.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Bill Bryden and his wife Lisa of Williamstown, NJ, and Jack Bryden and his wife Oksana of Centreville, MD; a daughter, Kathy Kendall and husband George of Chestertown, MD; and eight grandchildren, Dan, Eddie, Stephen, Mary, Cynthia, Amber, Sarah, and Ivan.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, March 26, 2016, at 12 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home in Chestertown, MD, where relatives and friends may call one hour prior (11 a.m.-12 p.m.). Interment will be in Chester Cemetery, following the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her memory to the Arthritis Foundation, 9891 Broken Land Parkway, Suite 101, Columbia, MD 21046.
