

Helen Carol Law Funk

November 3, 1999

Helen Carol Law Funk, of Easton, MD, and Fenwick Island, DE, died on November 3, 1999, at the William Hill Manor. She was 83.

Born in Clarksburg, WV, on October 23, 1916, she was the daughter of the late Clyde O. and Maude Lininger Law. She lived much of her early life in Wheeling, WV, where her father was the General Agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company. She received her education from Washington Seminary for Women, the public schools of Wheeling, and the West Virginia Wesleyan College, where she was a member of the Emeritus Club.

She and her husband, Thorold Shaffer Funk, moved to Clarksburg, WV, in 1942, where she was active in the First Methodist Church, the Women's Society, Clarksburg League for Service, and as a volunteer she helped initiate the snack bar for the then-new United Protestant Hospital. She was also a member of and lived at Lake Floyd.

In 1966, she moved to Charleston, WV, when her husband became Director of Vocational Rehabilitation for West Virginia. During this time, she was a member of the Sweetbrier Garden Club, and the Grandparents Club of Charleston. In 1991, she moved to William Hill Manor in Easton, MD. Mr. Funk died in January 1997.

Mrs. Funk is survived by a daughter, Mrs. William C. (Nancy Jo) Pepper of Selbyville, DE; a son, John G.L. Funk of York, PA; a brother, John M. Law of Atlanta, GA; four grandchildren, Bryan Pepper of Lewes, DE, Martin Pepper of Trappe, MD, Natalie P. Cataldi of Seaford, DE, and Amy F. Jackson of York, PA; and 9 great-grandchildren. A sister, Marjorie Law Shipp, is deceased.

Burial will be private in Bridgeport Cemetery, Bridgeport, WV.

Memorial contributions may be made to West Virginia Wesleyan College, Funk Scholarship Fund, Buckhannon, WV 26201.
