As a young man growing up with her son Joe, I am reminded of Aunt Helen's courage and strength during times of adversity. Her example will be greatly missed. With many tears and love in Christ our Lord.

“ Helen was a very talented crafts lady. She could knit, crochet, make doll clothes, afghans, Christmas items like Santa Clauses from old bowling pins, and scenes inside clam shells. She frequently donated knitted items to the Easton Hospital. May she rest in peace.
