

Helen F. Shehan

January 9, 1921 - October 6, 2013

Helen Falvey Shehan died on Sunday, October 6, 2013, at Genesis the Pines. She was 92.

Born in Worcester, MA, on January 9, 1921, she was the daughter of the late, Hugh Jerome and Alice Ekstrand Falvey. After graduating from the High School of Commerce in Worcester in 1938, she attended Framingham Business College and Peabody Preparatory School. She served in the U.S. Navy from 1943-1945.

After serving in the military, she attended the American University where she graduated with a B.A. in Music in 1964. She received her Master's in Music at Catholic University in 1968 and studied for Doctor of Music Arts. Helen was an accomplished pianist and composer. She also taught at Maret School in Washington, DC, and Chesapeake College in Wye Mills.

Mrs. Shehan was a member of Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church. She was also a member of the MD State Music Teachers Assn., the National Music Teachers Assn., the Academy of the Arts, Talbot County Historical Society, and the Friday Morning Music Club in Ocean City. In addition, she was a member and served on the board for the YMCA, Red Cross, and the Junior Auxiliary at the Memorial Hospital at Easton.

Helen is survived by her children, Helen Gale Shehan, Patricia Ann Shehan, William Mason Shehan, III, and Robin Theresa Shehan; a brother, Robert P. Falvey of Lake Placid, FL; a grandson, William Mason Shehan, IV; a great-grandson, William Mason Shehan, V, and several nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Susan Grace Shehan, and a brother, Donald W. Falvey.

Friends may call on Wednesday, October 9, 2013, from 6-8 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., in Easton. Prayers will be at 7:45 p.m.
