

Helen Webb

January 19, 2006

Helen Marie Webb of Chestertown, Maryland died in Chester River Manor on January 19, 2006. She was 77.

Mrs. Webb was born on October 9, 1928 in Ellendale, Delaware, the daughter of the late Harvey C. and Gertrude Short Marker. She attended schools in Delaware and in 1946 she married Marshall Webb and they resided in Greenwood, Delaware. In 1960 they moved to Kennedyville and in the 1970's they moved to Chestertown, Maryland. She worked with Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital, now Chester River Hospital Center, with housekeeping for over 20 years. Her husband predeceased her in 2002. Mrs. Webb belonged to the Rebekah, a women's club in Still Pond, Maryland. She enjoyed gardening, housekeeping, and shopping. She was a devoted wife and mother, raising five boys.

Mrs. Webb is survived by five sons: Wade Webb of Chestertown, Maryland, Monte Webb of Sudlersville, Maryland, Bruce Webb of Chestertown, Maryland, Gary Webb of Kennedyville, Maryland, and Kimble Webb of Fairlee, Maryland; one brother: Roland Marker of Seaford, Delaware; one sister: Pat Donnelly of Milford, Delaware; five grandchildren: Amanda Webb, Adam Webb, Beth Gladu, Myra White, and Conner Webb; and four great grandchildren: Andrew, Jessica, Sarah and Mathew.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, January 27, 2006 at 12 noon at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, 370 W. Cypress Street, Millington, Maryland. Family and friends may call one hour earlier. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to Chester River Hospital Center, 100 Brown Street, Chestertown, Maryland 21620.
