“ My obvious greatest memory of Pat is the court date of custody concerning me.....she walked in and in less then 10 minutes she greatly pushed both doors open to the court room smiling and laughing. I've to this day never saw a expression of joy as I did that day which make me feel all the more special with her love for my care. At a time when not a single member of my family showed.....she did...The only one wanting to have this little old me...priceless and the deed of all deeds....love you grandma.....you to me are my mother and most of all my friend so proud to know you in this life and so thankful for all you did for me....glad you're at peace love you dearly

“ Aunt Patty, I remember the the times we came to Delaware to visit as a young child, teenager and adult. The smiles, the laughter, the fly swatter! You are with Grandpap, Grandma and Aunt Barbara now, watching over all of us here. You will always be in my heart and we will all see you again. Love, Your Niece Debbie Y.
