

Helen W. Cooper

December 4, 2003

Helen W. Cooper of Chestertown, MD died on Thursday, December 4, 2003 at Memorial Hospital at Easton. She was 70.

Born March 23, 1933 in Philadelphia, PA, she was the daughter of the late John and Eleanor Norris Willey. She was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. In her spare time she enjoyed photography, Chesapeake Bay log canoes and their races, collecting lighthouses and Cat's Meow, and she loved to read.

Mrs. Cooper is survived by her loving and devoted husband, Harrison "Bud" Cooper, whom she married October 3, 1982; two children, Margaret "Peg" Favinger of Easton, MD and Aulby Bates III of St. Michaels, MD; two step-children, Barbara Gorrow of Arnold, MD and Cindy Bryden of Worton, MD; four grandchildren, Jennifer Dunker, Katie Marie Favinger, Tom Ringgold and Kaitlin Gorrow; one great-grandchild, Nate Dunker; and her beloved "four legged child", Josh.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, December 9, 2003 at 11:00 AM at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD, where friends may call on Monday evening from 6 to 8 PM.

Burial will be at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Kidney Foundation, PO Box 975, Washington, D.C. 20044.