

Hester Addy

May 25, 2000

Hester Addy, a resident near Chestertown, MD, died on Thursday, May 25, 2000, at the Kent & Queen Anne's Hospital in Chestertown of heart problems. She was 73.

Mrs. Addy was born in Charleston, SC, the daughter of the late William N. & Johnsie Kirkman McSwain. She was a homemaker.

In her early years, Mrs. Addy lived in Greensboro, NC, until 1946, when she married Ernest Addy. They made their home in Bala-Cynwyd, PA, from 1950-1989. While living near Philadelphia, Mrs. Addy was very active in the Y.M.C.A. and served as a Board member for many years in Ardmore, PA. The Y.M.C.A. selected her as "Lady of the Year" in Philadelphia, PA.

Mrs. Addy enjoyed being a homemaker and gardening. For many years, she enjoyed boating and cruising. She collected cut glass and enjoyed researching and reading about antiques. She also enjoyed bird watching. She was a member of the Kent County Historical Society and the Tabernacle Methodist Church in Guilford Co., NC.

She is survived by her husband of 54 years, Ernest Addy; four sons, William H. Addy of Havertown, PA, David J. Addy of Severna Park, MD; John R. Addy Virginia Beach, VA, and Thomas E. Addy of Louisville, KY; one daughter, Susan Louise de los Rios of Haw River, NC; 11 grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

Friends and family may call Saturday, May 27, from 6-8p.m. at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 130 Speer Road in Chestertown. Services will be held at a later date in Greensboro, NC, with the burial in the Tabernacle Methodist Church Cemetery.
