“ I have lost two amazing people in the last two years. The first was my dad who was the 'rock' in our family and the second was the women who was more than a mother to me. Mrs. Sally, I met you when I was 14 years old and I will never forget that first meeting. You chewed me out for something I did that you did not feel was ladylike. This was my very first lesson on how to be a lady, how to be respected. There were many more lessons like this one during our many years together and I will remember them all. What I am especially thankful for is that you kept me in your life and viewed me as a daughter, not a daughter-in-law and that you and your family kept me in the fold. You always were and will always be one special lady. I was blessed the day I met you...much love always to my "other mother" from your favorite "daughter"-in-law.

“ My condolences to the family. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "And he (Almighty God Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:4) Death will be removed from all the earth. (1Corinthians 15:26) Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. The Bible also promises: "And no resident will say: "I am sick." (Isaiah 33:24) These are promises that will soon be a reality. The Bible plainly states: "It is impossible for God to lie." (Hebrews :6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ My heart is heavy. Have so many good memories of my Aunt Sally when I was a child. Praying for her family during this tough time. She was my Godmother and will always be close to my heart. My husband Bill, myself and our children wish her family peace and strength.

“ Dear Ted and All your family,
Our hearts are broken -- words cannot begin to tell you of our love and sympathy.
Sally was not a friend from way back, but we only became friends after your move to Arizona. How privileged we are to have made that friendship. We treasure all the fun times and the memories made along the way. We have the "stitching" items so lovingly made by Sally which will always bring us joy and a reminder of her presence in our hearts. We shared so much; good times, and bad times, laughter and sometimes tears, always love and friendship. We always saved our larger cuts of corned beef to be able to share with our special friends. Our shared meals were frequent and we always looked forward to them. No one could match Sally's home made cakes. I wonder how many she made to bring and share at Phoenix Gun Club? The Gun Club was our stomping grounds for years - steak dinners, and yummy deserts.....and so much more.
Rest in God's Loving Arms, Sally. You will hurt no more, and that darned oxygen will no longer be a burden. Know we'll always love you.
You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To me Sally was always a second Mom to me, encouraged me, supported me, and was there when ever I needed her. I will miss her so much. There was never a day go by that I call and ask for advice and guidance. You will always be in my heart which not has an empty spot that you occupied. Bye Sally until we are together again. God has another Angle in Heaven. Bye Mom Love and Miss you

Love you always
Your Other Daughter
