

Dr. Horace William Whiteley Jr.

June 17, 1929 - July 31, 2013

Horace William Whiteley, JR MD "Hod," 84 of Chestertown, MD, and Lyman Island, Charleston Lake, Ontario, died Wednesday July 31, 2013 peacefully at his home. He was the son of Dr. Horace Whiteley and Sylvia Baker Whiteley of Jordan, NY.

Horace graduated the Manlius School, University of Pennsylvania and Syracuse Medical School. He trained in surgical oncology at Memorial Hospital in New York and went on to become a true pioneer in the surgical treatment of cancer at Sloane Kettering. After retiring from active practice he served as a surveyor/consultant with The Joint Commission. He deeply enjoyed playing his piano, reading History and downhill skiing in the course of his full life.

He is survived by his loving wife of 10 years, Sihh Ja Whiteley; son Horace William Whiteley III; and granddaughters; Dana Elizabeth Whiteley; Lynn Marie Whiteley; Paige Kathleen Whiteley of Newtown Square, Pa.; Sister Ann Tracy of Bristol, Ct; Brother Daniel Whiteley of Gallipolis, OH; and many other loving nieces, nephews and relatives.

Horace was predeceased by his wife of 48 years, Elizabeth Surprenant Whiteley.

The funeral services will be held on Monday, August 5, 2013, 10 a.m. at Christ

Church of Jordan (NY) with Reverend Joseph Bergin presiding.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Washington College, 300 Washington Avenue, Chestertown, MD 21620.
