

Howard Julian White Jr.

November 20, 1920 - January 7, 2010

Howard Julian White, Jr., of Chestertown, MD, formerly of Bethesda, MD, died on Thursday, January 7, 2010, at the Heron Point nursing facility. He was 89.

Mr. White was born in Batavia, NY, on November 20, 1920. He was the son of the late, Gertrude Snyder and Howard Julian White of Wilmington, DE. Mr. White graduated from the Choate School in Wallingford, CT, in the Class of 1938. He attended Princeton University and received a bachelor's degree in chemistry in the Class of 1942. He went to the University of Wisconsin for his master's degree and from there to the graduate college at Princeton for his PhD.

On June 25, 1949, Mr. White married Elizabeth Wangler of Princeton, NJ. The two celebrated their 60th anniversary in 2009. After their marriage, Mr. White worked for the Textile Research Institute of Princeton. After a brief employment at Stanford Research Institute in California, he returned to work for the Navy, as an aide to James H. Wakelin, Assistant Secretary of Research and Development. From there he joined the National Bureau of Standards (now NIST) and remained there until his retirement in 1988.

Mr. White was a past member of the St. Francis Church in Potomac, MD, a member of the American Chemical Society, and a volunteer for the Chester River Hospital Center and the Chester River Testers.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Sally L. Bub and her husband, Richard of Kinnear, WY; two sons, Matthew Preston White and his wife, Reyes, of Swarthmore, PA, and Michael Howard White and his wife, Nancy of Poolesville, MD; grandchildren, Meggan L. Sharpe of Buellton, CA, Amelia J. Chamley of Dubois, WY, Matthew Alberto White and Ana Elizabeth White of Swarthmore, PA; and seven great- grandchildren.

Services will be held at a later date at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or to the charity of your choice.
