“ Becoming acquainted with Ms Irma is an extra bonus to being a part-time member of the Christ UMC SS Class. Eventhough I only attend a few weeks a year.....she made sure I always received the crocheted crosses, mugmats and bookmarks.....I've cherished them.....and do evenmore today!!! She's already crocheting in heaven....I just know it!!!##imported-begin##Shari Keen##imported-end##

“ Ms. Irma - such a "special lady" to us. Only wish we had met earlier in life but we have some lovely memories and I shall cherish her crochet cross. She is in peace now and looking down on us in her radiant ways.

“ I think Miss Irma was my biggest fan in all of Chestertown. She had her eye on me from the time I was in her Sunday School class at age 4 or 5 through the time I worked for her in the mortgage and loan department during my summers home from college. Love that lady and am so glad she got to meet my family....wish she could have met my new grandson.##imported-begin##Peggy Orr Tracy##imported-end##

“ We all now have a "special angel" hovering over us. One sweet lady who I also thought would live forever. Will miss her smile in Sunday School. Everyone always had a crochet cross or bookmark made by her every Christmas. She is with her Father now and am sure she is loving it.###imported-begin##Joyce Benton###imported-end##

“ Ms. Irma will be missed. She was a wonderful lady. Irma was in my life since childhood and I have wonderful memories to keep close to my heart. When the duck use to sleep with me and peck my chest and Mr. Bill and Irma always fighting who was going to take me for Ice Cream. May you be singing and looking over all of my family each day and thanks for all the memories with my Dad and family and my family. i will miss you so much Ms. Irma.###imported-begin##GEORGE AND CANDY WILSON###imported-end##

“ Irma was one of a kind - I thought she would live forever. She used to chase me around Peoples Bank yelling " Elizabeth, Elizabeth" and they would hide me in the closet, all in good fun. Rest in Peace Irma. ##imported-begin##Liz Fleetwood##imported-end##
