

J. Bradford Moore

March 9, 1936 - January 8, 2018

J. Bradford Moore of Centreville, MD died on January 8, 2018. He was 82.

Born in Bridgetown, in Queen Anne's County on March 9, 1936, he was the son of the late Webster Franklin Moore and Ethel Barcus Moore. Bradford grew up in Centreville and graduated from Centreville High School in 1955. After graduation, he continued to help on the family farm until marrying Margaret in 1958, and began dairy farming on their own. In 1996, he retired from dairy farming and began tilling the farm. Bradford was known for growing Dr. Martin lima beans, which he did until 2007. He was active in the Queen Anne's County Farm Bureau, and had previously served on the Board of Southern States. Bradford loved spending time outdoors with the birds, and enjoyed the time he spent with his friends hunting, fishing and fox chasing. In his later years, he could often be found in the woods and fields on his golf cart.

He is survived by a daughter, Debra Sadler and his son-law, Donnie, of Centreville, MD; a grandson, Jason C. Sadler (Sandra); siblings: Webster Franklin Moore (Barbara), Ethel Boyle (Jimmy), Ola Smith (Ronnie) and Lee Moore (Dottie); and three great-grandchildren: Hannah, Asher and Adah. He was predeceased by his wife, Margaret Horner Moore, in 2012.

Burial will private.
