

Jack Cameron Kramer

March 26, 1989 - December 11, 2025

Jack Cameron Kramer, age 36, passed away Thursday December 11th, 2025 at his home in Grasonville, Maryland. He was born on March 26th, 1989 in Easton, MD, beloved son to Cathy Kramer (nee Pease) and the late Jon Kramer.

Jack grew up in Kent Island and graduated from St. Mary's High School, where he was an accomplished athlete in both football and lacrosse. He worked with an insurance company as a claims specialist and also for Annapolis Auto Parts as the manager (Kent Island location). Jack was an avid reader, enjoyed his pet Labrador "Murphy", and a lover of all music genres. He especially enjoyed folk music and attended Bonaroo music festivals. The Baltimore Ravens were his favorite football team. He was known to be a peacemaker of all things worldly, loved hanging out with his "boys", The Lord of the Rings, various entertaining youtube channels, and meaningful conversations with family and friends. Jack's impeccable listening skills and kindness will be greatly remembered by all who knew and loved him.

Jack is survived by his grandparents George and Jane Pease and his grandmother Susan Kramer. In addition to his father, Jack is preceded in death by his beloved sister Carly Jane Kramer, and grandfather, Arnie Kramer.

A celebration of Jack's life will be held at a later date.

“ I have fond memories of watching Jack play lacrosse. Great competitor, great kid. I know John was so proud of him. I've kept in touch with Jack over the years as I'm sure John would have done for my kids. Both gone too soon! Although gone from this place now, those fond memories will live on in my heart forever.

I'll miss you my friend.

RIP Jack Kramer

“ Jack was a childhood friend of mine. Actually one of my first crushes. We both loved music. My mom took us to see a reggae band and we had so much fun. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing. May God hold your family close now and may your memory comfort them.
