

Jack Joseph Russell

February 14, 2000

Jack Joseph Russell of Easton, formerly of Bethesda, a self-employed architect since 1971 died of cancer on Monday, February 14, 2000 in Easton.

Born August 12, 1930 in Williamsport, PA, he was the son of the late Jack Gordon and Agnes Kowski Russell.

He attended Columbia University and, although he was an architect for most of his career, he was also an artist and sculptor. He served in the U.S. Army from 1953-55 where he completed Counter Intelligence Corps School and served as a Counter Intelligence agent. He received the National Defense Service Medal.

Volunteer work was an important part of Mr. Russell's life. He was active in the following organizations; University of Maryland Terrapin Club, Friends of the Maryland Bank, American Institute of Architects for both the National and Potomac Valley Chapters, Bethesda Chamber of Commerce and the North Bethesda Rotary Club.

Mr. Russell is survived by his wife of 45 years, the former Lou E. Wilson of Easton; three children, Tanya Shuy of Olney, Drake Russell of Gaithersburg and Grant Russell of Columbia; a sister, Katie Caschera of Williamsport, PA and six grandchildren.

Memorial services will be held on Friday, March 10 at 2:30 PM at the Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, VA and at the Audubon Naturalist Society (Woodend), 8940 Jones Mill Road, Chevy Chase, MD at 7:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the University of Maryland Band Fund, 1106 Tawes Fine Art Building, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 2072.
