

Jacob "Jack" Ferdinand Foehrenbach

September 30, 1926 - March 3, 2023

Jacob "Jack" F. Foehrenbach of Chestertown, MD, died on March 3, 2023, at Whispering Pines in Rock Hall. He was 96 years old.

He was born in Islip, NY, on September 30, 1926, to the late Jacob and Lydia Foehrenbach. He was a graduate of Hofstra University where he earned a Master's degree in Chemistry.

Jack served in the U.S. Navy on board the USS Intrepid during World War II and was honorably discharged. He worked with New York State Department of the Environment in Water Conservation and Environmental Studies. He served as an expert witness in courtroom settings, and following his retirement, consulted on the environmental impact of dock building in New York. He retired in 1983 after publishing many articles on water conservation.

He married for the first time, at the age of 65, to Kathleen O'Connor in 1992. Together the couple traveled extensively.

Jack was a beekeeper, avid reader, hunter, and shepherd. He was an active environmentalist and past President of the Audubon Society.

He is survived by his wife and her son, Brady O'Connor and his family.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, March 28 at 11 a.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home in Chestertown, where relatives and friends may call one hour prior to the service. Interment will be held privately.

I have many great memories of Uncle Jack from my childhood. I loved it when he hid silver dollars for us to hunt for on Easter Sunday. So much better than Easter eggs! He took great care of Grandma in her later years. He was the last of his siblings, and now that Lydia, Clara, Rita and Jack have all passed it is the end of an era. Rest in peace Uncle Jack.
